

HOMEWORK 5

Due Date : 29.08.2021

In this homework, You will design a restaurant website. Make it responsive setting a page,using media queries and grid. You will be adding prices, images and you need to give it a beautiful look and feel as well using the proper combination of colors, font-style and images. You can add pictures gallery for different food items. In the header section add different menus. Also You can set margin and padding, add background-position and other CSS elements. You use a text field, checkbox, radio button, date, and other important elements